

The Abbey Theatre proposes that the car park becomes a one way system by installing Traffic Flow Plates (in RED) that will allow “Entry” only next to the theatre entrance and “Exit” only next to the cadet building.

This means that the only gate needing to be locked would be the theatre entrance gate and could be done at any time with the knowledge that any car already parked would be able to leave.